MOST GRATIFYING MEETING YET HELD

Sixteenth Annual Convention of Travelers' Protective Association Passes Into History. . .

ADAMS CHOSEN PRESIDENT

Lynchburg Man Selected to Head Organization for Ensuing Year. Delegates Chosen.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

ALEXANDRIA, VA., May 11.—The sixteenth annual State Convention of the Travelers' Protective Association of Virginia has passed into history, and the convention was one of the most harmonious and gratifying ever held.

Every report submitted was encouraging. The delegates are loud in their praises of the hospitable manner in which they were treated during their brief stay in this city. At midnight to-night most of the delegates had departed for their respective homes with pleasant recollections of the "good time" spent in "old" Alexandria. By a unanimous vote Roanoke was selected as the place for the seventeenth convention.

To-day's session, which was held at the Opera House, was called to order promptly at 10 o'clock by President Herbert. Prayer was then offered up by Rev. J. Cleveland Hall, chaplain of Post E, Danville.

Telegrams of greeting were then read by the president. The national secretary at St. Louis, and from the national board of directors, Richmond. The last mentioned telegram was referred to the committee on hotels and railroads.

Thomas P. Poindecker, chairman of the State board of directors, Richmond, submitted his annual report, and also his resignation as a member of the board. Upon motion his report was accepted and ordered to be placed on file. No action was taken, however, regarding his resignation.

Minor Changes Made.

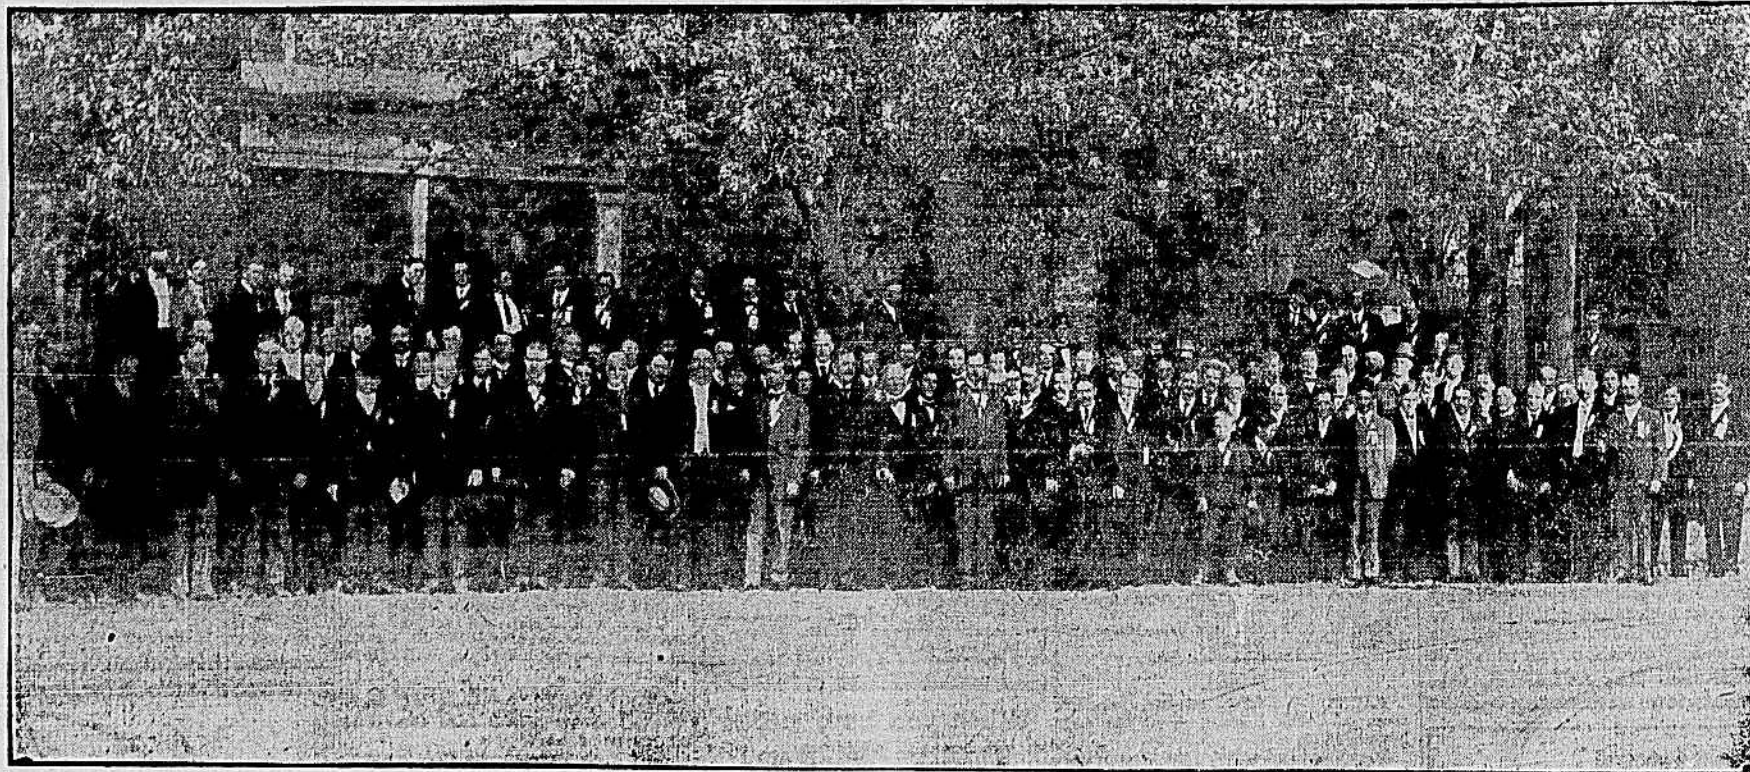

The report of the committee on constitutional amendments was read and received. A number of technical changes were made in the constitution. An amendment offered by Mr. Poindecker, that each post hereafter be represented by one delegate (or every ten members, instead of one for every twenty, was promptly rejected.

It was unanimously decided to have 1,500 copies of the amended constitution printed, and the work will be left in the hands of the committee.

S. T. Dickinson, Jr., read the report of the State legislative committee, recommending that the national association become a member of the National Freight Service, and his report was adopted.

A recess was then taken, at which time brief speeches were made by Rev.

MEMBERS OF TRAVELERS PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION ASSEMBLED FOR SIXTEENTH ANNUAL CONVENTION IN CITY OF ALEXANDRIA

J. J. Gravatt, State chaplain, Richmond; J. Cleveland Hall, chaplain of Post E, Norfolk; Rev. Joseph R. Bayler, chaplain Post F, Alexandria; and J. S. Dickinson, Jr., of Norfolk. The remarks of all of the speakers were received with applause.

Upon motion of W. T. Baugh, Petersburg, the salary of H. L. Harwood, secretary and treasurer, Richmond, was raised to $75 per month, which increase nearly doubles his present salary. There was not a dissenting vote, and immediately following the passage of the resolution there were loud and long calls for Mr. Harwood to make a speech. President Herbert thereupon appointed a committee of two to escort Mr. Harwood to the stage. A few minutes thereafter Mr. Harwood ascended the rostrum, and in a few well-chosen remarks thanked the convention for what they had done in his behalf.

Vote of Thanks.

Upon motion of J. H. Bailey, Petersburg, a vote of thanks was extended to Post F, Alexandria, by the convention, for the hospitable manner in which they had entertained the visiting members of the convention. A rising vote of thanks was also tendered Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Brockett for the elaborate manner in which they had entertained the visitors at their home, 318 North Washington Street.

By a unanimous vote it was decided to have Rev. J. J. Gravatt, State chaplain, attend the national convention at Norfolk at the expense of the State convention. A resolution offered by J. Y. Williams, of this city, to the effect that no delegate be allowed to name his alternate, and that the convention name eleven alternates to the national convention at Norfolk, was passed, and it was also provided that should there be a vacancy in the Virginia division after the eleven have been substituted the delegate not going shall recommend a member of his post, and that all alternates not members of the Norfolk post, shall receive delegates' pay.

The following were chosen delegates and alternates to the national convention which convenes at Norfolk: Post A, Richmond—C. W. Saunders, H. S. Christian, John C. Hagan, J. L. Hill, E. H. Clowes, W. K. Bache; Alternates, Hampton Fleming, F. E. Conrad, J. H. Grant, Post B, Norfolk—E. R. Barksdale, T. S. Hancock, W. H. Lucas; Alternates, W. P. Dodson, J. J. King, Post C, Petersburg—J. H. Bailey, G. W. Harrison; Alternates, R. W. Price; Post D, South Boston—Joseph Stevens, W. Nunn; Alternates, J. S. Oliver, Post E, Alexandria—R. M. Graham, J. Y. Williams; Alternates, O. H. Kirk, A. D. Brockett; Post G, Lynchburg—D. W. Sale, J. A. Mahood; Alternates, A. S. White, Post H, Blackstone—J. E. Jones, Post I, Martinsville—J. D. Sparrow, Post K, Staunton—H. A. Black, Post L, Newport News—C. E. Cole, Post M, Farmville—Alternate, C. F. Buggs.

Chairmen of committees: Railway—A. D. Brockett, Alexandria; streets—G. W. Rogers, Richmond; hotel—E. H. Clowes, Richmond; Legislature—Hampton Fleming, Richmond; employment—F. S. Hancock, Norfolk; membership—C. W. Saunders, Richmond; good roads—E. R. Barksdale, Norfolk; chaplain, Rev. J. J. Gravatt.

Drumheller did not obey court's order

Went Back to Wife's House, Created Disturbance, and Got Arrested.

John Drumheller, of Barton Heights, a machinist at the Locomotive Works, was placed under arrest Friday night for trespassing on the property of his wife in Barton Heights.

Some time ago Mrs. Drumheller filed a petition for divorce, and while the matter was pending the court issued an order restraining Drumheller from troubling his wife or going to her home. Thursday night he violated this injunction, and attempted to enter his wife's house, creating a disturbance, which resulted in his being placed under arrest, and spending Friday night in the Henrico Jail.

Yesterday Magistrate Angle fined him $10 and put him under bond to keep the peace. It is not known what effect his attempt to enter the house will have on the divorce proceedings, which are still pending.

vention for the honor bestowed upon him.

Resolutions to the respect of the memory of the late J. H. Capers, Jr., of Richmond, were unanimously adopted, and a copy was ordered to be sent to the family of the deceased.

The session came to end at 1 o'clock, after which the members visited Mount Vernon and Arlington as guests of the local post.

The school graduates are Misses Ruby Good, Pinkie Tiller, Bettie Everett, Lin Everett, Susan Powell, Lulu Lee, Mattie Wyche, Prince Lashley, Holt Newsome, and Edward Turner.

Those receiving commercial diplomas were Misses Sallie Brittle, Helen Kimes, Katie Tunstall, Ada Brown, Lizzie Goodwin, Mary Powell, Mamie Everett, Reta Edwards, and Messrs. William Liffey and Richard Chambliss.

The medalists were Misses Sallie Bailey, Virgie Fuller, Louise Garlick, Luel Brantley, Lucille Lashley, Rosa Treadway, Temple Vincent, Willie Treadway, Mary Squire, and Messrs. Morgan Reese, Arthur Moyes and Richard Reese. The medals were appropriately delivered by Mr. J. H. Saunders, while the diplomas were given in behalf of the school by the Rev. Hugh C. Smith, the Baptist minister of this city.

The musical selections as rendered by Misses Eleanor Tiller, Sallie Bailey, Ruby Good, Helen Vincent, Prince Lashley, Lulu Lee and Carrie Fox, were most agreeably rendered. The address of welcome was made by Rev. Mr. Davis, of Emporia.

Give Acting Pastor Reception. FREDERICKSBURG, VA., May 11.—The congregation of the Presbyterian Church Thursday night gave Rev. G. E. Henderson, the acting pastor, and Mrs. Henderson a reception at the church, which was largely attended. Addresses were delivered by Mr. J. W. Adams and Rev. J. W. Roseboro. An enjoyable program of music was rendered, and refreshments were served to all present.

Sunday-School Meeting. Another big union meeting of the Presbyterian, Methodist, Baptist and Christian Church Sunday-schools of the city will be held at the Washington Street skating rink, now known as the Tabernacle, to-morrow morning at 9:30 o'clock, at which time Evangelist Cates will conduct services and address the meeting.

Interest in the revival continues unabated, and many professions of religion are made at every meeting, a noteworthy feature of these conversions being the large number of men among the converts, many of whom have already joined churches of the several denominations, and are expected to do so to-morrow.

About 1,500 people have been converted during the past three weeks, and it may reasonably be expected that during the coming week this number will be increased to at least 2,000.

Preach Opening Sermon. Rev. A. R. Love, the new pastor of the West End Baptist Church, has taken his work in the new field, and will preach his opening sermon at that church to-morrow.

Mr. Love, who succeeds Rev. J. R. Doan, comes here from Hendersonville, N. C. Mr. Doan resigned the pastorate of the West End Church to take charge of a church in that city.
